Even though I thought real hard
I'm stuck before I start
My poor brain's let me down again

It's past it's sell by date
Though I eat my fish and sleep my sleep
And I drink my Irish brew

Eloquence would give me power
Emptiness is mine to fill
Too weak, but my ego won't let me

And so I let it go
And so I let my Ego
And so I let my Ego go
And so my Ego-es

Alter ego sacrifice
Stabbing on a deadly slice
Kick around your mind until it blows

Eloquence would give me power
Emptiness is mine to fill
Too weak, but my ego won't let me

And so I let it go
And so I let my Ego
And so I let my Ego go
And so my Ego-es

And so my Ego-es
