

Abundance

---

Litmus A Freeman

One day I woke up in a misery
And the darkness was all that I could see
Then I heard a song say "the best things in life are free"
And "we're living in abundance, living in abundance"

So I went down to my local bakery
And I bought a bag of buns and took them home for tea
And I danced around in Joy so very Happily
And I was living in a bun dance, living in a bun dance

Cos we're Living in abundance, Living in abundance yeah
And we're Loving in abundance, Loving in abundance yeah
And we're Giving in abundance, Giving in abundance yeah
Yeah we're Living, Loving, Giving in abundance

If you ain't got no Love don't think romantically
Cos when we truly Love it's Unconditionally
The Joy of Giving Love is to Give your buns for free
Then you're Loving in a bun dance, Loving in a bun dance

Cos we're Living in abundance, Living in abundance yeah
And we're Loving in abundance, Loving in abundance yeah
And we're Giving in abundance, Giving in abundance yeah
Yeah we're Living, Loving, Giving in abundance

So if you're all alone and you got no one there
Go show the people how much you really care
And dance your buns around, you got your buns to share
Then you're Giving in a bun dance, Giving in a bun dance

Cos we're Living in abundance, Living in abundance yeah
And we're Loving in abundance, Loving in abundance yeah
And we're Giving in abundance, Giving in abundance yeah
Yeah we're Living, Loving, Giving in abundance

Yeah we're Living, Loving, Giving in abundance
Yeah we're Living, Loving, Giving in abundance
