We came here once when we were young, we had a son, but only one and we thought we were the only ones, to find this place un - der the sun

Though it only seems like yesterday, we wound our way to it's sandy bay Nothing now re - mains the same at the bottom of that lane

CHORUS:

* We went today, to Bara - fundle bay and I'm a - fraid to say, it's not like yesterday
And I suppose that we are all to blame, we do it all in progress' name we want it all to stay the same, but we want it all to change

A field was here but now it's tar, for every bush there's now a car for every tree, there's a cream tea, the blades of grass an underpass

You used to have to walk a mile, to see the view to make you smile but now you park right on the sand, how sad the way | G we spoil this

Repeat Chorus
