Litmus A Freeman

I feel I'm partly made up
Of bits of the books I have read

They've got me through
So many times in my life

Times when I felt like
An alien abroad and

Times when I felt I was Being ignored and

Times when I knew I was
So self absorbed and

Times that will come back
Again I am sure

Sometimes you feel so unique
'Cause no one else feels like you do, but

Sometimes you feel like a freak
With a strange point of view

So thanks to the spirits who
Channelled those words

To all the souls in these
Vessels on earth

I'm sure we all get the Message deserved so I

Hope I can take all my books
To my next rebirth
