

Has It Really Been A Year

---

Litmus A Freeman

Has it really been a year
Since the love affair that never was?
I thought the need would disappear
But now I sit and wonder “why, oh why?”
I used to look at you and want to shout
Now I wonder what the fuss was all about

Once my life was crystal clear
Then you came and smashed to shards of glass
Curiosity and fear
Now I sit and wonder “why, oh why?”
Could it be you never were the one for me
You never were the one for me

(Instrumental)

Now I sit and wonder “why, oh why?”
I used to look at you and want to shout
Now I wonder what the fuss was all about

Maybe it was just a phase
Now I'm looking through a crystal glass
Memories so hard to erase
Now I sit and wonder “why, oh why?”
Could it be you never were the one for me
You never were the one for me

So has it really been a year?
Has it really been a year?
Has it really been a year?
Has it really been a year?
