

How Come

Litmus A Freeman

How Come, when you said "leave me alone"
you just happen to be here on the end of my phone
How Come, when you said "give me some space"
all I seem to come across is your sickly smilin' face

How Come, if you needed "all that room"
are you so close to me again, so close again so soon
How Come when you needed "all that time to think"
you can just drop by and drop your arse into my drink

Seems to me you're just trying to rub it in Seems to me you know you're underneath my skin
Seems to me you're just trying to piss me off
You never really cared, and I'm just too fuckin' soft

How Come, when you said "give me some space"
all I seem to come across is your sickly smilin' face

How Come, if you needed "all that room"
are you so close to me again, so close again so soon

How Come, Tell me how come
How Come, How Come

How do you?
