Verse:   D                    /                    Bb               C
         I feel I should      hold on                   I want it   all
         No reason to         give up                   I want it   all          I can

Bridge:  D      CM9           G                    D          CM9    G
