

Rainbows On The Moon

Litmus A Freeman & Cliff Coates

Love, love is all I need, like you gave to me
Lust is only greed, now I'm down on my knees.....

You read the paper, Red, your eyes
Orange-d deception, Yellow bellied lies
Green coloured envy disguise
(Green coloured envy disguise)

Lost, lost is how I feel, like a forgotten song
I don't know the words, and like the tune you are gone....

I Blue my chances, lost control
Violet-ed trust in me, no parole
Indigo stains on my soul
(Indigo stains on my soul)

Chorus

I had everything in you why did I look for more
Coloured memories washed away like footprints on the shore
I said I could bring you back, I spoke too soon
More chance of Christmas in June
More chance of Rainbows on the Moon

Time, time has passed me by, left me on my own
Staring at the sky, cold heart in stone.....

Repeat Chorus

More chance of rainbows, more chance of rainbows
More chance of Rainbows on the Moon
Rainbows on the Moon, Rainbows on the Moon
