

Same Same (But Different)

Car bomb chaos on the streets and TV screens,
Everywhere the Empire's been
Deja Vu I'm sure I've seen this all before,
Partitioned lands and civil war

Chorus:

A trail of terror in our wake,
Evolution says you learn from your mistakes
But this is no mistake
It's all part of one big plan
Ever since the fall of man

Space invaders rule the world are you tuned in
To the way it's always been?
Fear and "freedom" marketed like cans of beans
And trivia distracts you from the scene and the question why?

Repeat Chorus

I read a book called 1984,
If you don't read just look outside your door
They tell us we're the ones at threat but I am sure,
Aggressor is the name for those that start the fuckin' war

And "Holy Words" from Hollywood promote the beast
And terrorise the middle east
They came from there, now they're on Sky & CNN
In Washington and No.10

Repeat Chorus

Same, Same, but different
Same, Same, but different
