

The Moment Now

Lyrics written with Cliff : Coates

Close my eyes
The haze it takes me
To a place of mine

No one here would
Dare awake me
As I'm creating space in time

Everyday for me is a Sun-day
Every time's an afternoon
All the words are out there drifting
Into my room

Through the window
Chords are calling
Searching for a melody

No song of mine could
Now awake me
From unforgotten memories

Every song for me is a Sunday
Every thought an afternoon
Every word I write can free me
If I seduce it with a tune

But I won't sleep until I
Find a pen and paper,
Ask my guitar to find the notes

And after midnight
Early Friday morning
My song becomes and off she floats

Yeah after midnight
My song becomes
The moment now and off she floats

My song be-comes the moment now
My song be-comes the moment now
