My old home town has been locked down like a military operation
So I'm stuck at home shopping on my phone in a virtual occupation
Everything's closed but the Amazon flows and feeds the concrete jungle
All the shops in a cardboard box from a warehouse on me dongle

Dm7 / G13 / Am7 / D7/9

They took my money, but the parcel never came
Feel depressed, been Ali Express-ed, their stuff all looks the same
They want me to stop, to walk to the shop, that's down the end of my road
They want me to hop, straight to the top of the queue-aargh code

So now I'm feeling down, in a foreign town, with nothing much to see
Need a room, but I spoke too soon, there ain't none left near me
Want a bedroom scene, but got no data stream, so no 'Air BnB' for me
All signed up to the online stuff, the booking dot e-con-omy!

Dm7 / G13 / Am7 / D7/9

Fast Wi-Fi is a sexy high,
Swiping through the app, stuck in the root chakra trap
Send a note, clutch your throat, Cafe emancipation,
Straight to bed another baby fed in the 'Tinder Egg' generation

Am7 / F7 E7 x 4 (Instrumental)

Dm7 / G13 / Am7 / D7/9

The Uber-Eats are riding the streets,
Placating desires, puttin' out munchie fires
So I get myself an Uber, at a 'suber-duber' price,
And a man on a scooter to deliver my Chinese rice

Am7 / F7 E7 x 2 (double double time!)

But I'm fed up with this, they're takin' the piss,
Parasites in the stream
Got a twitch, they're makin' me itch,
Broken my simple life dream

Now I'm sure gonna open my door and Run down the street to see
If I can pop into the corner shop and
Buy direct from my mate Ali
